

Aamir's visit causes traffic jam

Special Correspondent

BANGALORE: Actor Aamir Khan's visit to a local hospital created a traffic jam in Malleswaram on Monday evening with fans and autograph hunters mobbed the place hoping to have a glimpse of him.

Mr. Khan is in the city to promote his film 3 Idiots and had dropped in on his mother-in-law who is in hospital.

A big crowd gathered in front of the hospital, which led to traffic snarls in the locality.

Mr. Khan is touring different parts of the country in disguise to plug his film. However, on Monday evening he appeared as himself — clean shaven and in a green T-shirt.

He is scheduled to interact with select customers at the Forum Value Mall, Whitefield, on Tuesday and expected to visit the IIMB campus where the 3 Idiots was shot.
